Ploi Server Management Tool uses WildDuck email server to provide email accounts. To obtain your Ploi access token, do the following:

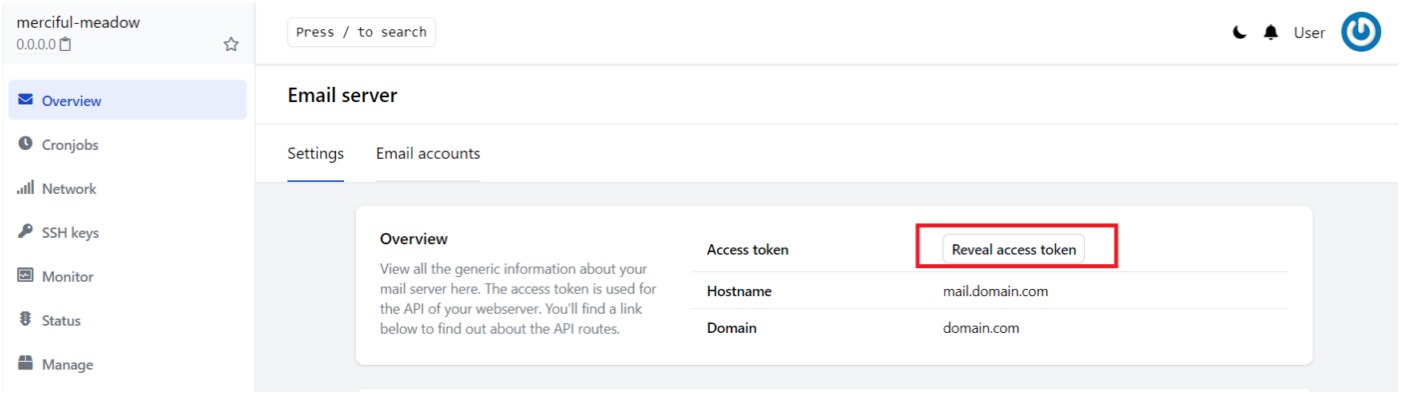

1. Login to Ploi's dashboard.

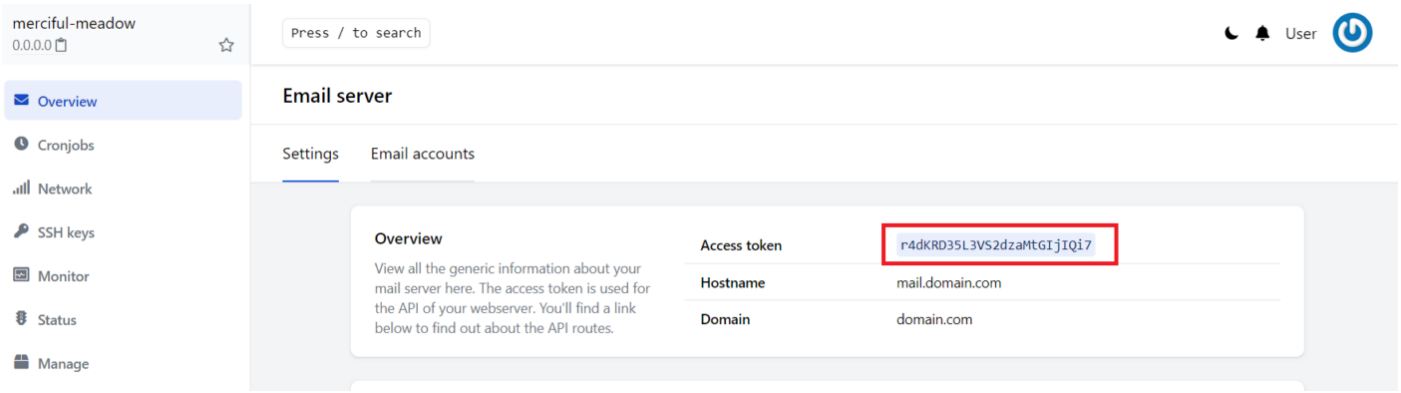

2. Proceed to the Servers section and select your email server.

3. In the email server's overview page, click on the 'Reveal access token' button.

4. The access token should now be displayed.

If you would like to obtain the access token directly from the WildDuck email server's terminal, please follow the steps here.
